

SOLIDARITY FOR THE LGBTI COMMUNITY WHO ARE PROSECUTED IN THE AFRICAN CONTINENT

Free Gender, Treatment Action Campaign and PASSOP will be hosting a dialogue followed by a prayer session on the issues of homophobia on the continent. This is also to respond to the Anti-Gay laws that were signed by the President of Uganda. Free Gender will also suspend its participation in Cape Town Pride this coming Saturday till the Cape Town Pride Annual General Meeting where LGBTI individuals and organizations will have an input on the strategy in moving Cape Town Pride forward.

LGBTI individuals from Uganda, Nigeria, DRC and Cameroon will also be in attendance to give us a clear picture on what is happening in these countries. Zackie Achmat, human rights Activist and Zethu Matebeni, feminist, scholar and activist will comment and assist South Africans to understand what these homophobic laws mean and the role that we can play and also make some recommendations on the way forward. This event will be:

Date: 01st March 2014 in
Address: 6 Spin Street Cape Town
Time: from 2pm – 4pm
